

eLearning

Rapid, animated and fully interactive learning, designed and built in-house.

If you have an eLearning need,
we have the solution.

ELEARNING AND INSTRUCTIONAL DESIGN FROM RAPID COURSES TO FULLY INTERACTIVE TRAINING

COMPRSA designs and builds eLearning for organisations in manufacturing, aviation, government and more, covering technical, procedural, health and safety, IT, HR and soft-skills training.

All content development and instructional design is done in-house, with video, voice-over, graphics and animation where needed, and the assistance of our technical writers.

HOW WE WORK

- The SAM and ADDIE models keep your subject matter experts involved throughout development
- Knowledge base articles and system KB videos created alongside your courses
- Xyleme proficiency: documentation and light eLearning publishing
- AI integration for faster production and speedy turnaround, with human review
- SCORM 1.2, SCORM 2004, AICC and Tin Can API publishing to any major LMS
